

Advising you on all your direct tax needs

Tax planning has never been easy, in the recent past, India has witnessed certain big tax policy changes such as GAAR, taxation of indirect transfer of Indian assets in overseas deals, tax accounting standards, each with its own set of complications and resultant impact on the business.

With uncertainty comes opportunity, but the key is to prepare now. You need to understand the various scenarios and their implications, so that you have strategies ready to put into action when it's time to implement.

Most business decisions have Tax implications which are complicated in nature. We at U.S.Gandhi & Co., keep ourselves updated and work with our clients to keep them informed on Tax implications to their businesses.

Our methodology and approach is especially custom-built by our experts to suit our client's business structure and target market. Our approach not only permits our client's to ensure that their compliance obligations are being met on a timely basis, but also enables them to create value in a variety of complex overseas tax environments thereby unlocking their potential for growth.
